THIS Life Assurance Office being purely MUTUAL,

The Whole Profits belong to the Assured.

The Society has endeavoured to place its Rates and Rules on the most equitable and liberal footing; and its affairs are administered by Directors whose interests are identified with those of the Assured.

The Bonus declared by the Society as at 31st December, 1853 and 1860, has been so high as at the rate of £1, 15s. for each year, for every £100 assured, not only on the original sum in the Policy, but also on Additions which are accumulated at each Septennial Investigation. And the practice of the Society is to provide for Members, dying between the Investigations, similar Additions at the rate of 1½ per cent.

The result of the Investigation, as at 31st December, 1867, will be announced at the Annual Meeting of the Members in May next; and it is expected that a Bonus of at all events £1, 10s. per cent. per annum will be declared both on original sums Assured and previous Additions.

The Rates of Premium for the Life Department have been computed expressly for this Office, from the most approved observations on the duration of human life, and they will bear comparison with those of any other Company. They are at the same time so graduated, that no one class of Insurers is favoured at the expense of another.

IMPORTANT ADVANTAGES.

Non-Forfeiture of Policies by the Issue of Free Paid-up Policies.—If a person, after having been assured for three years under the ordinary Whole Life Scale, at any age up to and inclusive of fifty-five, should wish to discontinue paying his Premiums, the Directors will issue a Policy for the amount of Premiums paid, together with any Bonus that may have been added, and free from any further payment whatever. This feature secures not only a provision in the event of premature death, but a remedy—long desired—should the payment of the Premium become an inconvenience.

Half-Credit System.—Half of the Premiums may remain on Credit for five years, at 5 per cent. Interest, on Policies for the whole term of Life.

Equitable Conditions of Policies.—Moderate Premiums (with the option of paying them according to a variety of convenient methods)—Liberal provision for the non-forfeiture or surrender of Policies—and certain specially beneficial arrangements as to the reception of the Bonuses—are some of the many advantages of the Life Scheme of this Company.

Life Bonus.—At last valuation (1863), a Bonus was declared to Participating Life Policy-holders, averaging 46 per cent. of the Premiums paid by the Assured, and in some instances rising as high as 75 per cent.

The next Bonus falls to be declared as at 31st DECEMBER, 1868, and ALL NEW PROPOSALS COMPLETED BEFORE THAT DATE will be ENTITLED to a FULL YEAR'S BONUS.

The Company transacts all kinds of Home and Foreign Fire and Life Insurance Business. Annuities, Endowments, Reversions, &c., at Moderate Rates, and on terms as liberal as those of other first-class Offices.

ALL LOSSES SETTLED WITH PROMPTITUDE AND LIBERALITY.

THE DIRECTORS INVITE APPLICATIONS FOR AGENCIES TO BE MADE TO THE RESIDENT SCOTTISH MANAGERS, GLASGOW.

By Her Majesty's Royal Letters Patent.

RELATIVE TO THE PARIS EXPOSITION.

Other Sewing Machine Companies are advertising Gold Medals, and the Cross of the Legion of Honor, with the apparent design of misleading and imposing upon the public. According to the Official Award List of the Imperial Commission, issued by the publishers of the Catalogue, Messrs. J. M. Johnson & Sons, only one out of the Companies so advertising received any Prize at all, and that one was for a Sewing Machine to make button-holes—nothing else—"Machine à coudre à faire les boutonnières." The others are not even mentioned in the Award List, and one of them, to the best of our knowledge and belief, did not have a single Machine in the Exhibition.

ALEXANDER CAMERON, 83 UNION STREET, GLASGOW.

THE "HOWE" SEWING MACHINE.

There is no Original and Genuine "Howe" Sewing Machine except that which was awarded the GOLD MEDALS and FOUR MEDALS for Excellence of Work at the Great International Exhibition of 1862.

Intending Purchasers are desired to consult those who have used both the "Howe" and its imitations. The Original and only Genuine "Howe" has no Bronze Medallion, and is Guaranteed for Three Years.

Can only be obtained at the Chief Office, 83 UNION STREET, GLASGOW.

THE "ELASTIC" OR "CIRCULAR FEED" SEWING MACHINE.

For all Jobbing purposes it is the most perfect Machine of the kind. Can put both the Elastic Sides into a Boot after the Sole is on, or a Patch on any Part of the Upper without altering the position of the Sole.

THE Publishers have again to thank the Public for past favours, and in issuing this, the Forty-first edition of the Directory, they can only say, that it has been prepared with great care and attention to insure correctness. There has again been a large increase of names; the fine Map has been revised down to date; the "get up," they hope, will give satisfaction, being neatly printed on good paper, and the binding has been tastefully executed by Mr. Gowans, who for the first time has done this part of the work.

[The duty on a Foreign Bill drawn or endorsed out of the United Kingdom, payable on demand, is the same as on an Inland Bill payable otherwise than on demand (23 Vict. c. 15). The word "endorsed" is held by the Board of Inland Revenue to have no practical effect. The Act 23 Vict. c. 15, § 12, provides that the party paying the bill shall write "paid" upon the stamp. The Act 17 and 18 Vict. c. 83, § 5, applies to bills payable on demand out of the United Kingdom (27 and 28 Vict. c. 56, § 21).]

[Bills bearing to be drawn out of United Kingdom are to be deemed Foreign Bills so drawn, though they may in reality be drawn in United Kingdom (17 and 18 Vict. c. 83, § 4). A person in United Kingdom drawing and issuing a bill payable out of United Kingdom in a set, must draw the whole set, and a person transferring or negotiating such bill must transfer and deliver, stamped, the whole number of the set. A person taking such bill must get the whole set stamped, otherwise he cannot make it available, ib. § 6. This applies only to bills drawn within and payable out of United Kingdom.]

MANDATE. See PROXY.

MARRIAGE CONTRACT. The leading head under which marriage contracts are chargeable is SETTLEMENT. Instruments, containing settlements of lands, property, or other thing, besides settlement of money or stock, are chargeable with duty in respect of such, as if contained in a separate deed. A marriage contract may therefore be liable to different duties. If definite sums, and stocks, are settled so as to give an interest to any extent which shall certainly take effect, these are liable to the ad valorem Settlement Duty. If an annuity is provided to widows or others, it is liable to the Bond of Annuity Duty. Obligations to pay sums to widow, as for mournings, are liable to the ad valorem Bond Duty. All settlements of property, or other matters not liable to specific duty, will be covered by one general deed duty, over and above the other duties. An obligation by husband, to pay sums to trustees for children, if any, would be liable to the Bond Duty, not Settlement Duty, being contingent. The stamp duty of 5s., imposed by 55 Geo. III. c. 184, on a certificate of marriage, and on a certificate of reception of the Holy Sacrament, is repealed by the 28 and 29 Vict. c. 96, § 21.

If the amount secured or recoverable 'is limited'—The same duty as on a wadset for such limited sum.

And if the amount 'is uncertain' and 'without limit,' then the deed shall be available as security for such an amount only as the ad valorem duty of the stamp will cover.

[It is not chargeable with further duty (except progressive duty) by containing additional security for payment or transfer of such money, stock, interest, or dividends, or any new covenant, or other matter in relation to such money, stock, interest, or dividends.]

Any deed for the 'further assurance' only of property constituted a security, by deed which has paid the ad valorem duty—

Also any deed made as additional security for any sum, &c., so secured—

Where the total value already secured does not exceed £1400—The same duty as on a wadset for the amount.

And in any other case, £1 15s.

 [Heritors' mandates to vote and act at parochial boards are exempt (8 and 9 Vict. c. 83, § 22).]

[The proxy and voting-paper duty of 1d. may be denoted by adhesive stamp, which must be duly cancelled by the person signing the instrument (24 and 25 Vict. c. 91, § 27; 27 Vict. c. 18, § 14).]

RECEIPTS for money amounting to £2 or upward, 1d.

The following provisions as to what shall be deemed a receipt, and the exemptions from receipt duty by 55 Geo. III. c. 184, are still in force:—

Any writing given upon payment of money, whether signed or not, shall be a receipt if it shall import that any money, debt, or demand, amounting to £2 or upwards, has been paid or settled. Like documents given upon payments by bills, drafts, promissory notes, or other securities, are also receipts.

[According to decisions, a simple acknowledgment of money in loan, or of the correctness of a debt, or of a deposit of money, is not liable to duty, either as receipt or promissory note. The judges held it essential to render a receipt liable to duty that something formerly due had been discharged. On this principle a receipt for money as a donation to a religious or charitable purpose, not being any thing formerly due, would not be liable to duty. The Board of Inland Revenue have intimated that they are to regard such receipts as exempted.]

Among the exemptions from receipt duty are—

Receipts written on promissory notes, bills, drafts, or orders for the payment of money, duly stamped. Receipts written on any bond, mortgage, or other security, or any deed, duly stamped, acknowledging receipt of the consideration money, or of any principal money, interest, or annuity.

[Receipts for money passing between master and servant are not regarded as liable; but this would not apply to travellers who travelled for several houses.

Receipts for donations are not considered liable, if the donation is made and the money paid at once.]

[Stamps may be impressed or affixed. Where adhesive stamps are affixed, the grantor is required to cancel the stamps by writing, or stamping, or impressing in ink, his name or initials on them (16 and 17 Vict. c. 59, § § 3, 4, and 5; 24 and 25 Vict. c. 91, § 33).]

And if the same shall exceed £100, then for every £100, and fractional part of £100, - - - 5s.

[Bonds, debentures, policies of insurance, covenants or contracts settled or agreed to be settled shall be deemed settlements of the principal sums of money named in them. But on policies of insurance, unless provision be made for keeping them up, the duty charged shall be only on their value. For the mode of ascertaining the value of foreign and colonial stocks and currencies, &c., see the Act 27 Vict. c. 18, § 13.]

All such deeds which contain any settlement of lands, property, or other thing besides the settlement of such money or stock, shall be chargeable with such further duty as any separate deed containing such settlement of lands, property, or other thing, would have been chargeable with, exclusive of the progressive duty.

And where there is more than one such deed chargeable with such duty exceeding £1 15s., one of them only shall be charged with the ad valorem duty; and where any settlement shall be made in pursuance of previous articles chargeable with and having paid such duty exceeding £1 15s., it is not chargeable with the ad valorem duty; and the deeds not chargeable with the ad valorem duty shall be charged with the duty to which they are liable under any more general description in the stamp schedules; and on the whole being produced, duly executed and stamped, the latter shall also be stamped with a particular stamp denoting the payment of the ad valorem duty.

INVENTORY DUTY.

I. PERSONAL ESTATE:—

Every person who shall, as executor or otherwise, enter upon possession or management of a personal or movable estate in Scotland of any deceased person, in whole or in part, shall, within six months, exhibit upon oath in the Commissary Court an inventory, duly stamped, of all the personal or movable estate and effects of the deceased. The inventory and testamentary writings left by the deceased, if any, shall be recorded in the books of the court (48 Geo. III. c. 149, § 38.)

Inventories and relative testamentary writings are to be given up and recorded in, and confirmations granted by, the Commissary Court of the county wherein the deceased died domiciled; and in the case of persons dying forth of Scotland, or without any known domicile, having personal property in Scotland, the Commissary Court of Edinburgh. (21 and 22 Vict. c. 56, §§ 3 and 8.)

Oaths and affirmations on inventories of personal estates, to be given up and recorded in any Commissary Court, may be taken before the commissary or his depute, the commissary-clerk or his deputy, any commissioner appointed by the commissary, or any magistrate or justice of the peace within the United Kingdom or the Colonies, or any British consul. (21 and 22 Vict. c. 56, § 11.)

If the deceased person died domiciled in Scotland, it shall be competent to include in the inventory of the personal estate in Scotland, the personal estate in England and Ireland. The estate in England and Ireland shall be separately stated in the inventory, and the inventory shall be stamped according to the entire value of the estate situated within the United Kingdom. If confirmation be required, the domicile must be proved to be in Scotland; and to give title to the English and Irish property, the confirmation must be sealed in the Principal Probate Court in England and the Probate Court in Dublin. (21 and 22 Vict. c. 56, §§ 9, 12, and 13.)

The provisions of the Act are merely permissive. It is therefore still competent to pay duty on the estate in Scotland, and probate or administration duty in respect of the estate in England and Ireland. In the case of a person dying domiciled forth of the United Kingdom having personal estate in Scotland, this mode of paying the duty must be followed, as there is no provision for payment of duty, in respect of the personal estate in England or Ireland, on the inventory or confirmation.

If there be any omission in the inventory inferring payment of further duty, an additional inventory is required to be exhibited by 48 Geo. III. c. 149, § 38; and § 40 provides that it shall specify the value of the estate and effects in the former inventory. By 16 and 17 Vict. c. 59, § 8, such additional inventory shall be chargeable only with such duty as, with the duty charged upon the former duly stamped inventory, shall make up the full duty, in respect of the total amount of all the estate and effects of the deceased specified in the additional and former inventory. If the estate be over estimated, or something improperly included, an inventory on a stamp corresponding to the value must be exhibited, and the original inventory will be allowed on affidavit as a spoiled stamp, within six months of the recording of the second inventory.

Personal estate which a person dying shall dispose of by will, under authority to dispose of the same as he shall think fit, shall be deemed personal or movable estate of the person so dying, for the purpose of payment of inventory, probate, or administration duty (23 Vict. c. 15, § 4). The duties are to be charged on the property, in respect of which they are payable, and to be paid by the trustees or owners to the executor.

By the 27 and 28 Vict. c. 56, §§ 4, 5, British ships at sea, or elsewhere out of the United Kingdom, are property of the deceased at the Port of Registry for payment of Inventory Duty.

Indian Government Promissory Notes, and certificates issued, or stock in lieu thereof, being assets of a deceased person, the interest of which shall be payable in London, registered in London, or enfaced in India for such registration before the death of the owner; also Indian Government Promissory Notes, with coupons attached, in the same circumstances as to registration, and certificates issued, or stock created in lieu thereof, shall be personal estate, and bona notabilia in England of the deceased (23 Vict. c. 5, § 1); also any ship or share of a ship belonging to a person deceased, registered in the United Kingdom, although such ship may at the time of the decease have been at sea or out of the United Kingdom, shall be deemed to be at the port where registered (27 and 28 Vict. c. 56) and liable to inventory, probate, or administration duty.

"The inventory and additional inventory of any person deceased, required to be exhibited and recorded in Scotland, shall be stamped with duty according to the value of the property at the time they shall be sworn to, including the proceeds accrued to that time; and the duty, or deficient duty, according to such value and proceeds, and interest thereon at the rate of five per cent., shall be a debt to Her Majesty by the person making oath to said inventory and additional inventory, and his heirs and successors; and if such inventory and additional inventory shall not be exhibited and recorded, the inventory duty on all the personal or movable estate and effects of the deceased, and interest thereon at the rate of five per cent. from the expiry of six months after the death of such deceased person, shall be a debt to Her Majesty by the person who shall intrmit with such personal or movable estate and effects, or any part thereof, and his heirs and successors." (23 and 24 Vict. c. 80, § 5.)

II. MONEY SECURED ON HERITAGE, &c.

The Act 23 Vict. c. 15, § 6, declared that money secured on heritable property in Scotland, and money secured by Scotch bonds in favour of heirs and assignees, excluding executors, should be chargeable with inventory, probate, or administration duty.

The Act 23 and 24 Vict. c. 80, was passed to regulate the levying and collection of this duty. Section 1 describes the property liable to inventory duty under the Act of 23 Vict. c. 15; and § 8 further explains what shall be subject to duty. Section 9 of the Act 23 and 24 Vict. c. 80, repeals the Act 23 Vict. c. 15, § 6, in so far as regards probate and administration duty being chargeable in respect of the property, so that now in all circumstances such property is liable to inventory duty. Section 1 is in these terms—

"All money secured on heritable property in Scotland, and all money secured by Scottish bonds and other instruments, excluding executors, and all money secured by Scottish bonds and other instruments, the rights to which shall be taken excluding executors, constituting the succession, or part of the succession, of any person who shall have died on or after the 3rd April, 1860, shall be liable to inventory duty."

Two modes of paying the duty are provided (23 and 24 Vict. c. 80, §§ 3 and 4):—

1. By a "special inventory" (according to a form in the Act) of the property, to be lodged with the Solicitor of Inland Revenue at Edinburgh, stamped according to the amount of property. The inventory stamp shall be testate or intestate according as the stamp on the inventory of the personal estate shall denote the testate or intestate rate of duty.

2. By adding the amount of the property to the inventory of the personal estate, and paying stamp duty upon the aggregate amount.

This second mode will generally be most advantageous for the tax-payer; and will be followed when the interest in the heritable and movable estate is the same, or when the heir and executor can arrange as to payment of the duty. As to both modes, it is declared that the duty is ultimately to be borne by the parties proportionally according to their interests in the property.

The 5th § of 23 and 24 Vict. c. 80, provides, that the inventory duty shall be payable on the property liable according to its value at the time the inventory shall be sworn to, including the proceeds accrued to that time.

It will be observed that the inventory duty on money secured on heritage, &c., is limited to such property constituting the succession of a person who shall have died on or after the 3rd April, 1860 (23 and 24 Vict. c. 80, § 1); but the provision for valuing property at the date of the affidavit to the inventory, and including the proceeds to that time, is retrospective and universal in its operation, applying to all inventories without regard to the date of death.

III. GENERAL OBSERVATIONS.

In the case of a person dying domiciled in Scotland, having personal property in Scotland, England, and Ireland, and money secured on heritage, &c., duty in respect of the whole may be paid on the inventory recorded in the Commissary Court; or inventory duty may be paid on the personal property in Scotland, and duty may be paid on a "special inventory" of the money secured on the heritage, &c., and probate or administration may be obtained in England and Ireland in respect of the personal estate in these countries, and duty paid in respect of such on these instruments.

In case of a person dying domiciled furth of the United Kingdom leaving personal estate in Scotland, England, and Ireland, an inventory must be given up in Scotland, probate or administration taken out in England and Ireland, and duty paid on such in respect of the property in each country. For probate and administration duty, debts and money due from persons in the United Kingdom to a deceased, on obligation or other specialty, shall be estate and effects of deceased, within the jurisdiction of the Court of Probate in England or Ireland, in which the same would be if they were debts upon simple contract, without regard to the place where the obligation or specialty shall be at the time of the death (25 Vict. c. 22, § 30).

RETURN OF INVENTORY DUTY:

The inventory duty and probate and administration duty are paid on the whole personal property, without deduction of debts; but the Act 5 and 6 Vict. c. 79, § 23, provides for a return being given on proof of the constitution and payment of the debts. This return must be claimed within three years; but the time will be prolonged on application to the Board of Inland Revenue. A return of the duty paid on heritable securities may also be made in certain circumstances. (See 23 and 24 Vict. c. 80, §§ 4 and 6.) No return will be granted in respect of a voluntary debt due from a person dying after 28th June, 1861, expressed to be payable on the death of such person, or payable under an instrument which shall not have been bona fide delivered to the donee three months before the death of such person. (24 and 25 Vict. c. 92, § 3.)

Uncle or aunt, or their descendant, - - - - -	5 0
Grand uncle or aunt, or descendant, - - - - -	6 0
All other relations or strangers, - - - - -	10 0

The husband or wife of the deceased is not chargeable with duty. If the legatee's husband or wife is of nearer consanguinity than the legatee, duty is payable according to such nearer relationship. (16 and 17 Vict. c. 51 § 11.)

This duty is payable for every legacy out of the movable estate, or out of or charged upon the heritable estate of the deceased, or out of any estate which he has power to dispose of, or out of any moneys to arise by the sale, mortgage, or other disposition of the deceased's heritable estate: Also for the clear residue (after deducting debts, funeral expenses, legacies, and other charges first payable thereout) of the movable estate, whether the title to such residue shall accrue by virtue of testamentary disposition, or upon partial or total intestacy: And also for the clear residue of moneys to arise from the sale, mortgage, or other disposition of any heritable estate, directed to be sold, mortgaged, or otherwise disposed of by will or testamentary instrument.

Annuities commencing on the death of persons after 19th May, 1853, are valued for legacy duty according to tables annexed to the Succession Duty Act (16 and 17 Vict. c. 51); and annuities commencing previous to that date, by the tables annexed to the Legacy Duty Act (36 Geo. III. c. 52).

Duty is not exigible on legacies or residues under £20; but if a legatee take two or more legacies, which shall together amount to £20, each shall be charged with duty.

[Printed forms and regulations for payment of the legacy duties will be obtained gratis, on application at the Legacy Duty Office, Inland Revenue, Edinburgh; and at the offices of distributors of stamps in the country.]

SUCCESSION DUTY (16 and 17 Vict. c. 51).—This duty commenced on the death of persons after the 19th May, 1853, and seems to be imposed on all property, heritable and movable, passing by death, not liable to the duty on legacies and successions to personal estate upon intestacy, imposed by the Legacy Duty Acts.

The duty on HERITABLE PROPERTY is charged on the annual value, after allowance of the necessary outgoings (§ 22), as an annuity for the life of the successor (§ 21), which is to be valued by tables annexed to the Act.

PERSONAL PROPERTY is liable to duty according to the value of the succession; and money charged on heritable securities is chargeable as personalty (§ 1).

RATES OF SUCCESSION DUTY.

Brothers and sisters of the predecessor and the descendants, £3 per cent.

Brothers and sisters of the father or mother of the predecessor and their descendants, £5 per cent.

Brothers and sisters of a grandfather or grandmother of the predecessor and their descendants, £6 per cent.

Any other person, £10 per cent.

The husband or wife of the predecessor is not chargeable with duty (§ 18), and if the successor's husband or wife shall be of nearer consanguinity than the successor, duty is payable according to such nearer relationship (§ 11).

Exemptions from the succession duty:

Purchasers of stamps (except receipt, labels for medicines, newspapers, and postage-stamps) at London, Edinburgh, or Dublin, under the value of £10 each, but to the value of £30 or upwards in whole, are allowed discount at the rate of 30s. per cent. (12 and 13 Vict. c. 80). The like discount is allowed to any person lodging, at Edinburgh, paper or forms containing printed matter only, to be impressed with stamp duties under the value of £10 each, but to the value of £30 or upwards in whole.

To persons who at one time shall produce, at the office of Inland Revenue in London or Dublin, paper to be stamped with, or shall purchase at the office in London, Edinburgh, or Dublin, stamps to the amount of £2 or upwards, or of any distributor of stamps at any place not within ten miles from the said offices, stamps to the amount of £1 or upwards, denoting any duty not exceeding 1s. on Bills of Exchange, Drafts or Orders, or Promissory Notes, or Stamps, for denoting the duty of 1d. (except postage and custom stamps), an allowance shall be made of 10d. for every 20s. of the duties denoted by such stamps—(23 and 24 Vict. c. 111, § 3). No person selling such stamps shall charge for the paper whereon the same are impressed: penalty, £10 (17 and 18 Vict. c. 83, § 25).

REGULATIONS AS TO EXCHANGING SPOILED STAMPS.

The Solicitor's office, No. 5, in the Inland Revenue Office, is open for the allowance of spoiled stamps every Tuesday and Thursday, from twelve noon to two P.M. The distributors at the following places also receive spoiled stamps for allowance: Aberdeen, Ayr, Banff, Cupar-Fife, Dumfries, Dundee, Elgin, Forfar, Glasgow, Greenock, Inverness, Peebles, Perth, Stirling, and Tain.

Forms of affidavits are kept by the Solicitor and the above distributors; and claimants may attend at the Solicitor's office, and have the affidavits filled up and taken; or they may get copies of the forms, and take the oath before a Justice of the Peace, and afterwards lodge the affidavits and stamps with any of the above officers. If the claim be admitted, a ticket is issued, stating that application is to be made for the new stamps after Thursday se'ennight, and within six weeks from the date of the ticket. If not made within that time the claim will be forfeited.

The stamps, if belonging to persons in Edinburgh, or within ten miles of it, must be presented for allowance within six months after being signed in the case of executed instruments, and six months after being spoiled in the case of unexecuted instruments. If the stamps belong to persons beyond that distance, they must be presented within six months in the former, and twelve months in the latter case.

Bills and notes delivered to payees, or negotiated or issued in any way, and bills accepted or tendered for acceptance, cannot be exchanged, unless a new bill be produced, in all respects the same, excepting the correction of the error.

As to the exchange of sea policies of insurance, see 30 Vict. c. 23, § 17. The cases for allowance are:—

1. Where policy shall be inadvertently filled up in an incorrect or improper manner.
  2. Or be obliterated or otherwise spoiled and rendered unfit for use.
  3. Or shall be filled up for some insurance which shall not be proceeded in, and the same shall not be signed by any underwriter, but in no other case.
- Application must be made within six months after the policy shall be spoiled or become useless. Unsigned instruments are allowed, if inadvertently spoiled: signed, if void in law from the beginning; from error or mistake, unfit for the purpose originally intended; from death or refusal to sign, of any person whose signature is necessary; from want of the signature of some necessary party; from refusal to act under, or from non-acceptance; or if the transaction be carried through by another instrument duly stamped.—(See 53 Geo. III. c. 108). In the case of transfers of stock signed by seller alone, and other instruments by one party, new deeds must be produced to the proper officer, who, as to transfers, is instructed to certify in what particulars they differ from those spoiled.

Stamps of a different description may be obtained for any stamp spoiled if it be of the value of £6 or upwards. Applications for this purpose to the Commissioners of Inland Revenue should be lodged with the affidavit. The Commissioners, by 3rd and 4th Will. IV. c. 97, s. 19, may refund, in money, the amount of spoiled stamps. They are also authorized to repay the amount of stamps for which the possessor has no immediate use, if applied for within three months after purchase. In both cases the percentage allowed by law on the purchase is deducted.

STAMPING DEEDS AFTER BEING SIGNED.

Beyond Twelve Months.—The deed will only be stamped on payment of the whole duty, or the deficiency of duty remaining payable on it, and a penalty of £10; and if the duty or deficiency exceed £10, then, in addition to the duty and penalty, there shall be paid interest on the duty or deficiency at the rate of 5 per cent. from the date or first signing of the deed; but such interest shall not exceed the amount of the duty or deficiency of duty.

Within Twelve Months.—If the deed be brought to the Commissioners of Inland Revenue within twelve months after the first signing or executing, it may be stamped without payment of the penalty, or on payment of a portion thereof, provided it be proved that the deed was not duly stamped previously to being signed, by accident, mistake, inadvertency, or urgent necessity, and without any wilful design to evade or delay the payment of duty (13 and 14 Vict. c. 97, § 12).

Abroad.—If the deed be executed abroad, it may be stamped without penalty, within two calendar months from being received in the kingdom, upon proof of the facts (13 and 14 Vict. c. 97, § 12).

Adhesive Stamps.—Where adhesive stamp may be affixed to any instrument, an officer of Inland Revenue, authorized by the Commissioners, may affix and cancel the adhesive stamp. The instrument shall thereupon be deemed sufficiently stamped. But this not to apply to instruments not allowed to be stamped after being signed, or issued, nor to instruments after the expiration of the period limited for stamping them. The penalty required to be paid on stamping of the instrument is not affected by this provision (24 and 25 Vict. c. 91, § 32).

[Instruments to have stamps impressed are received at the Cashier's Office, Inland Revenue, Edinburgh, to be stamped, if within two months of the first date (the Solicitor may in certain circumstances receive them within two months of the last date), on payment of the duty; if beyond that date, on payment of the duty and penalty. Persons applying will be furnished with a schedule, which, after being filled up, is to be presented, with the instrument, at the Cashier's Office, No. 3, Inland Revenue. The amount of duty sought to be impressed is to be inserted in the schedule by the applicant before being presented, and the duty is to be paid at the time of the application. As to stamping agreements and charter-parties, see Notes under these heads.]

DOUBTS AS TO THE SUFFICIENCY OF STAMPS MAY BE REMOVED.

The opinion of the Commissioners of Inland Revenue as to the duty with which a deed, previously stamped or otherwise, is chargeable, may be obtained on the deed being presented, and a fee of 10s. paid. The duty or insufficient duty which the Commissioners may assess, and the penalty, if any, being paid, they stamp the deed with the duty so paid, and thereupon, and also in case of the deed being previously sufficiently stamped, impress the deed with a particular stamp for the purpose. The deed shall then be received in evidence, notwithstanding any objection to it as insufficiently stamped. The provision does not apply to bonds or mortgages for unlimited amounts, nor to instruments after being signed, prohibited from being stamped. On the stamp duties assessed being paid, and 40s. for costs being deposited, the opinion of the Commissioners may be appealed against to the Court of Exchequer in Scotland, if the deed has been presented for the opinion of the Commissioners at their office in Edinburgh; to the Court of Exchequer at Westminster, if the deed has been presented at London; to the Court of Exchequer in Ireland, if the deed has been presented in Dublin. (13 and 14 Vict. c. 97, §§ 14, 15; 28 and 29 Vict. c. 96, § 22). The Commissioners may also adjudge on deeds not liable to any duty; and if duty is assessed the party may appeal. (16 and 17 Vict. c. 59, § 13).

[Instruments are received for adjudication at the Solicitor's Office, Inland Revenue Office, Edinburgh, on the same conditions as to duty and penalty as instruments to be stamped merely. The sum of 10s. for the adjudication stamp is first to be paid to the Cashier, No. 3, Lobby. Then the schedule (the duty to be impressed not being inserted), the instrument after execution, and a copy of it, written on foolscap paper, omitting the bounding description of lands, &c., and having appended to it a table giving the substance of the provisions, particularly dates and sums, and a reference to the page of the copy on which each commences, are to be left at the Solicitor's Office, No. 5, on Mondays and Wednesdays, between 10 and 12 o'clock. Between 10 and 12 o'clock on Thursday following, a person, who can give explanation, must call on the chief clerk of the Solicitor's Department, No. 6; and he should be prepared to pay the proper duty, and penalty, if any, to the Cashier, No. 3, Lobby.]

DUPLICATES OR COUNTERPARTS.

Duplicates or counterparts of instruments requiring to be impressed with the denoting stamp to render them valid, may be lodged at the Solicitor's Office, No. 5, Inland Revenue, Edinburgh, between 10 and 12 o'clock on Mondays and Wednesdays. A transmission of them is made once a week to the head office. The principal instrument, as well as the duplicate, must be lodged, and both must appear to be properly stamped, otherwise they will not be transmitted.
